PORTLAND, BY THE DEEP BLUE SEA

Music by LEW TOBIN

Moderately - with expression

Words by WILLIAM JOHN FOLEY

RECITE: If there is an - y place on earth that I would want to Yes Portland you have charm that has stolen many great hearts a - be, It is in PORT- LAND MAIN, BY THE DEEP BLUE SEA ; ----- That pen-

-way, Be-cause your natural beauty has been preserved to this day;----- Rightly

-in - su- la which juts out in - to scen- ic Cas- co Bay, Is the you de- serve the name "Forest City," which was given you in time, For your place where the po- et Long- fel- low spent his youth- ful days. "I will thousands of streets boasts of park shade trees that silhouette your sky- line. Your rise a - gain," is the mot - to on Port- land's ci - ty seal, Thus pro-population indeed is not great, It is

- claim- ing your peo- ple's stead- fast- ness, cour- age and zeal; Ma - ny by your quality not quantity by which you rate; Your times have dis- as - ters caused you to lay in waste, -- Yet people also diversified in race and creed, you have al - ways come back and put on a bet - ter face. -

Are uniteu in peace, that common need .

Sing: Go forth, fair Ci-ty, a-long the cor-ri-dor of time, As I sing your prais-es in words of rhyme; ----- ----- Ad-vance a-long the Halls of Fame, for it is from you that ma-n-y great ones came. ----- Yes, as I pass on a-long the way, I look for-ward to my re-turn some-day. -----; To once a-gain view the sight for which I came, Port-land, you ----- al-ways have my ac-claim. -----
